David Paul Horan

Bio

DAVID PAUL HORAN believes that a true Patriot must always be ready to defend his country against its government. David Paul's innovative use of Constitutional Law and the Civil Rights Act has earned him a national and international reputation in admiralty and maritime law, environmental law and fisheries law.

Born to a U.S. Air Force family in Rome Georgia, he lost his father to a mid-air collision at the age of 15. After graduating with a degree in science (Marine Biology, Chemistry and Physics), he had a short work history as a Naval Aviation Cadet (NAVCAD), teacher, personnel manager and skin and scuba diving instructor. He remains an avid diver and enjoys spearfishing during his infrequent escapes from his office. He owns a twin engine Piper Seneca II and has logged over 3500 hours of flight time.

Mr. Horan's community involvement includes serving as a Director of the Greater Key West Chamber of Commerce since 1973 (President in 1998), Member of the Key West Military Affairs Committee (Chairman in 1991), Member of the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary Counsel (1997/2000), Mote Marine Keys Advisory Board (2000 to Present) and numerous other Boards and Commissions. In 2001 Mr. Horan was inducted into the Key West Chamber of Commerce Hall of Fame, Key West's highest community service award.

Mr. Horan is licensed to practice in all Florida State Courts, Florida Southern and Middle District courts, four (4) United States Courts of Appeal, and the United States Supreme Court.

Representing most of the modern-salvors, he fought the seven (7) year-long case for Mel Fisher/Treasure Salvors that culminated in his successful oral argument before the United States Supreme Court. His salvage cases include the Spanish Galleon Nuestra Senora de Atocha of the 1622 Fleet and aircraft, including recently, a Boeing B-17 G recovered from a Lake in Northern Labrador, Canada.

In 1979, Mr. Horan hired a great legal secretary and by 1981, she had become his best friend who, in 1982 became his wife. Karen Horan continues to work as his secretary. Mr. Horan is the proud father of five (5) children.

Dear Mr. Horan:

On behalf of this office and the Monroe County Board of County Commissioners, please allow me to congratulate you on your reappointment to the Monroe County Shared Asset Forfeiture Fund Advisory Board, which occurred at the January 20th Commission meeting. Your appointed term of office will commence January 16, 2010 and will expire on January 16, 2012.

In accordance with Section 760.80, Florida Statutes, we are required to submit a report to the Secretary of State annually. We must report the number of appointments made during the preceding year from each minority group and the number of non-minority appointments made. In addition, we must report the number of physically disabled persons appointed to boards, commissions, council and committees in the previous calendar year. In order for us to comply with this mandate, please complete the attached form and return it to Calvin Allen, EEO Coordinator, 1100 Simonton Street, Room 268, Key West, FL 33040. You may also email the information, if it is easier for you, to allen-calvin@monroecounty-fl.gov.

Thank you for your continued interest in our community and congratulations once again.

Very truly yours,

Debbie Frederick
