APPLICATION

Land Use District Designation(s): Improved Subdivision

Present Land Use of the Property: vacant

Proposed Land Use of the Property: Residential Single Family

Total Land Area: 2,700 ±

Pursuant to Monroe County Code Section 142-6, the Director of Planning & Environmental Resources is only authorized to grant the following variances:

1. Reduction in the front yard and rear yard non-shoreline setback requirements by no more than ten (10) feet and side yard non-shoreline setback requirements by no more than twenty percent (20%).
2. Reduction in the off-street parking requirements by no more than twenty percent (20%).
3. Reduction in the buffer-yard width requirements for Class C, D, E, and F district boundaries, major streets, and scenic corridors by no more than ten percent (10%).
4. Reduction by no more than ten percent (10%) in the total area of landscaping required for off-street parking and loading.

Provide the standards required by the land development regulations: Front yard 25' Rear Yard 20'
(i.e., front yard setback of 25 feet, 100 off-street parking spaces, etc.)

Provide requested variance: Front yard 15' Rear yard 10'
(i.e., reduction of 5ft for a front yard setback of 20 feet; reduction to 90 off-street parking spaces, etc.)

All of the following standards must be met in order to receive variance approval. Please describe how each standard will be met (as it relates to the property):

1. The applicant shall demonstrate a showing of good and sufficient cause for granting the variance:
The size of the lots would not allow for the development of a single family residence without granting of the applied for variance. The variance requested follows the spirit of the community as many of the homes have received the variance requested herein for their own property. The subject property contains a similar footprint and scale to that of the surrounding homes.
2. Failure to grant the variance would result in exceptional hardship to the applicant:
failure to grant the variance applied herein would restrict the applicant from the development of the subject property into a single family residence. The neighboring properties have been granted the variance being applied for here, failure to grant the variance would result in an exceptional hardship to the applicant.

Exceptional hardship means a burden on a property owner that substantially differs in kind or magnitude from the burden imposed on other similarly situated property owners in the same land use district as a result of adoption of the regulations.

APPLICATION

3. Granting the variance will not result in increased public expenses, create a threat to public health and safety, create a public nuisance or cause fraud or victimization of the public:
The variance being applied for keeps with the spirit of the neighboring properties. The property is to contain on-site parking and will not create any increased public expense, create a threat to public health and safety, create a public nuisance or cause fraud.
4. Property has unique or peculiar circumstances, which apply to this property, but which do not apply to other properties in the same zoning district:
The subject property has a small size unlike the majority of properties in the IS district. As such, the setbacks affecting the subject property render the property unable to be developed, thus, the subject property has unique and peculiar circumstances which apply to the subject property and all other 50x50 lots but does not apply to the typical lot found in the IS district.
5. Granting the variance will not give the applicant any special privilege denied other properties in the immediate neighborhood in terms of the provisions of the code or established development patterns:
All 50x50 lots within the IS district have received a variance to the setbacks to allow for the development of a single family residence. This variance does not seek for the applicant to receive any special privilege not afforded to any other developed 50x50 lot within the IS district.
6. Granting the variance is not based on disabilities, handicaps or health of the applicant or members of his family:
The variance requested is the only way in which a single family residence can be constructed upon the site. The variance is not based on disabilities, handicaps or health of the applicant or members of his family.
7. Granting the variance is not based on the domestic difficulties of the applicant or his family:
The variance requested is the only way in which a single family residence can be constructed upon the site. The variance is not based on the domestic difficulties of the applicant or his family.
8. The variance is the minimum necessary to provide relief to the applicant:
The subject property must be constructed on stilts as the floodplain designation requires the minimum FFE to be above 10 feet. The variance being requested is the minimum necessary to provide for the construction of a single family residence. The property was designed and engineered to request the minimum variation to the setback requirements while still providing a single family residence that met all life safety, fire and building code requirements. Without the variance, the applicant will not be able to construct a single family residence.
